[REDACTED] concerning their contacts with a group of Cuban nationals in Indiana referred to this Agency by Senator Vance Hartke. Senator Homer Capehart is also interested in this group. This group has submitted a proposal in writing to [REDACTED] is now faced with the problem of advising them that we have no interest in their proposal. However, [REDACTED] is concerned that the individuals may again resort to Senator Hartke. I suggested that I discuss our position with this group with appropriate people in the office of Senator Hartke and Senator Capehart to alert them to the action which we propose to take. This will be done within the next day or two.
